REPORTS OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

EASTERN DISTRICT

E. L. WHITE, Superintendent.

Bishop Richardson, we welcome you to the Inter-Mountain Conference. We have looked forward with much pleasure to your coming and to the last man we will cooperate with you in making this Conference what you and God would have it be.

This year, I resolved to make a brief report, giving a review of some high points connected with the work of the District as a whole, but again the thought comes that there can be no entirely successful work, no satisfactory progress, and no worthwhile district consciousness, solidarity, or even cooperation until and unless each and every man puts in full time and does his very best work.

So, for the fourth time, I submerge my own ideas, thoughts, and opinions to pay tribute to the work that has been done, and to the loyal men and women who have done the work.

Aberdeen—As usual, Brother Allison was the first to report Gooding College in full. Other good deeds include: new furnace installed, grounds graded, church renovated, gain of twelve members, all bills paid, and a hearty invitation to the pastor to come back for the seventh year and do it all over again.

American Falls—God bless the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, for, thanks to its generous support and donation of $500, Brother Garver reports the old church debt all subscribed and balance to be paid within sixty days. Ladies' Aid raised $600, parsonage was renovated, grounds seeded, and a property worthy of this fine little city is now the boast of folks both in and out of the church.

Ashton—Brother Meredith never wearies in well-doing, for the splendid improvement started last year has been completed, and Brother and Sister Meredith have been enthusiastically and unanimously invited to return for the sixth year. A ten acre patch of Methodist potatoes helps to stabilize the finances. Would that other folks could catch the vision! Four students for Gooding College, and still more from Ashton this year.

Albion—"A new student for Gooding," was the report Brother Officer sent out when the junior pastor arrived in the parsonage home, and to him already belonged the credit for a full per cent of the students enrolled in our youngest college in Methodism. Besides his work with the students of the State Normal School, which was so splendidly backed by the Wesley Foundation and the Board of Home Missions, the pastor painted the parsonage, cleaned the grounds, spent $200 on improvements, and will report all claims met in full.

Buhl—A four-hundred-dollar raise in salary, the heartiest kind of cooperation, and an enthusiastic invitation to return show the esteem the good people of Buhl have for Brother and Sister Helman. Both pastor and people are going to capitalize this year's prosperity to complete the subscription for the new church, $8,000 of which has been cared for. Two students, and canned fruit galore for Gooding College, and when Miss Frances, talented, cultured, and Christian, brings home her college degree, Brother Helman will receive the biggest return for any investment he has ever made for his hard work and untiring loyalty to our only conference institution.

Blackfoot—In spite of persistent illness, Brother and Sister Deal have been tireless in faithful work and good deeds. Dr. George Kidder assisted in revivals, which resulted in many accessions. Ladies' Aid raised $1,000; World Service in full; and excess raised for Gooding College. World Service Treasurer, Brother E. Doud, best and youngest man of his age this side of heaven. Parsonage renovated, and people insist that Brother and Sister Deal occupy it next year.

Burley—O. L. Kendall, our host. You already know it, and to know him is to love him. Dean of Epworth League Institute—the best ever. Chorister—you cannot help but sing when he leads. Evangelist—district could not get along without him. Booster!—if he ever has the blues, the world does not know it. Administrator—church renovated, repaired, and rebuilt; grounds improved, see for yourselves. Wish we had a dozen more of the same kind right now.

Castleford—Again the Board of Home Missions saw the need, and made an advance possible by a donation of $250. First unit of the new church, costing $3,000, nearing completion. Policy, pay as you go. Dr. (George Kidder assisted in revivals. Will meet World Service in full. Brother and Sister Bartlett, always faithful, always loyal, always at work, beloved by all.

Dietrich—Hard hit, and many Methodists moved, but with American Falls Dam, will come back. Will recommend that it be supplied by Gooding College, until local support for resident pastor can be secured.

Filer—Dr. J. D. Gillilan has one of the largest and best Bible classes on the Eastern District. At the Epworth League institutes, the youngsters said he was the best teacher on the grounds, and all the other instructors said "Amen." Long may he live! Organized a new church with twenty-four members at Berger, and received twenty-seven new ones at Filer. Ladies' Aid raised $1,000.

Fairfield—Church renovated, painted, and re-roofed; services at Hill City; strong delegation to Epworth League Institute; World Service and Gooding College cared for in full; unanimous request for return—and his name is Miss Eva Brown. For personal reasons, she cannot be with us next year. It will take a strong man to follow her. May God bless her in her new field.

Glenns Ferry—Left to be supplied by Gooding College under the direction of President Tenney. Splendid Sunday School, Mrs. Harry Campbell, Superintendent. Now asks for a full-time resident pastor, and has support already pledged. Many faiths and types, but a host of consecrated, loyal people, who are entitled to the best. All claims, including Area office, will be met in full.

Gooding—Bible not compulsory, but one of the largest classes in Gooding College. Why?—Brother McCallister. Gooding College three times winner of Southern Idaho Inter-Collegiate Debate during last quadrennium, and then with a shift of debaters and five days' time, defeated Willamette's strongest team. Why?—Brother McCallister. On the street, or tennis court, at the office, in the home, pulpit, or study, always, quiet, unassuming, helpful, and forceful, with a good word for everybody, and never a snarl, never a growl, never a word of complaint. Invited back at increase of salary, and has earned the promotion.

Hagerman—Has been most acceptably served by E. E. Crabtree of Twin Falls, who has been invited to return. If for personal or business reasons he is unable to accept, I will recommend that the point be supplied from Gooding College. One of the special features of the year was a special program rendered by the choir of the Twin Falls Methodist Church.

Hansen—Dr. Valentine Deich has had charge of this strategic point, which has had the heartiest support and cooperation of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. Besides looking after every interest in the church, Brother Deich has interested himself in civic affairs; in student-getting for Gooding College, and taught Home Missions both at the Wood River and Utah Epworth League institutes in a most acceptable manner.

Idaho Falls—If all the pastors on the Eastern District will follow the lead set by Brother Turner and care for local budget, World Service, Gooding College, and all other interests in full within ninety days from right now, this coming year will be the greatest in the history of our Conference. Old debts paid, World Service and Gooding College, including memorial room, salary increased, invited to return, Woman's Home Missionary Society entertained; organizer, administrator, Kiwanian, man among men—God bless you, Brother Horace.

Jerome—Bishop Smith will dedicate practically a new church September 25, and Pastor Charles E. Tate donated 52 days' labor, which helped make this transformation possible. Thirty-four ladies raised $843, everybody helped, and everybody is happy. For next year, the Jerome folks all say, "Tate," in preference to any other.

Kimberly—Brother and Sister Charles D. Fletcher have built up a Sunday School and an Epworth League that compare favorably with the best in the District, which tells the story of why the salary was raised from $700 to $1,600. Though $150 was spent on improvements, new rooms must be added. Gooding College gets many students from this charge, and furnishes two or more teachers each year. World Service will be cared for in full.

Mackay—Supplied by J. B. Sutton, who has been requested to return. This summer, he was assisted by Dr. C. Travis of Chicago, who gives Mackay Methodism two pages in the last issue of the Northwestern.

McCammon—Brother Fred Nihart opened up the Downey charge this year, and has been faithful to every interest at McCammon. As so many Methodists have left, however, the question of financial support may make it impossible to continue the work at these points.

Murtaugh—Brother Charles E. Ronk of the Brethren church of Twin Falls has supplied this point in a most acceptable manner, and all claims will be met in full.

Paul—C. O. Heath handles this point, and both he and his good wife taught in the Sunday School, which is especially needed and must be cared for. Have not fully decided on best plan to recommend to the cabinet.

Pocatello—Brother Ewing has raised $622 on improvements and $500 more on indebtedness this year, making $2300 that he has raised on improvements since going to Pocatello two years ago. The Ladies' Aid, recently organized, raised $524; the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, $250; and the Woman's Home Missionary Society, $230. A strong brotherhood stands loyally back of the pastor, who is trying to serve the needs of the church and to meet its claims in full.

Richfield—Brother Frisbie is a happy fit in this rural community. The Fourth Quarterly Conference voted to raise his salary $200 and unanimously invited him to return. The Aid has renovated the parsonage, bought rugs and furniture, and added much to the comfort of the pastor's family.

Rupert—In spite of much sickness in the family, Brother Heath reports the parsonage renewed, the church redecored, and a total of $1,600 worth of improvements made and paid. In all this good work, the pastor has had the hearty support of a most loyal and dependable constituency.

Salmon—Brother George Archer now lives in a modernized parsonage, notwithstanding his well-known theological views, and has been invited to return for the fifth year. In spite of his amiability and his adaptability, it is rumored that Brother George will take the floor, if asked to contribute again any more to Lava Hot Springs.

Shoshone—M. P. Lewis, a student from Gooding College, supplied this county seat and gateway to the heart of Idaho this year. With a good church, two parsonages, and a splendid but small group of laymen, this point should find a way to finance a full-time man and then stand back of him, no matter how great the sacrifice, but by request the recommendation will be made that Shoshone be supplied.

Shelley—Brother Alfred Shirley, always capable, always loyal, and always highly respected, has again filled the gap for these good people. Now, with returning prosperity, they ask for a full-time pastor, and whoever goes to Shelley will be treated right. This year, Shelley made needed improvements and paid $393 on old debt.

Twin Falls—Fifty Messengers tell the story of the Area doings to Twin Falls folks each month, which probably helps account for the splendid World Service record made by these good people this year. One hundred new members received, cooperated in Bulgin revivals, preached good sermons, gave fine addresses at League institute, delivered his second baccalaureate for Twin Falls High School, faithful in every detail—these are some of the whippers heard about the pastor, Dr. H. G. Humphrey. Mention should also be made of Sister H. E. Rounds, who in spite of the illness of her husband, has organized the church for the task of raising funds for the mission work of this great church. The special rally held at this church January 25-26 was a great success, thanks to Doctors Smith, Cutschall and others.

Wendell—Brother Fryer will report all in full. A strong Junior League, a new furnace in the parsonage, 38 new members received, 22 baptized, $500 raised by Ladies' Aid, two lots adjoining the parsonage purchased, his son Edward, Gooding College graduate, elected to the superintendency at Richfield, daughter Winifred a senior in this year's class, World Service cared for in full, and excess raised for Gooding College, are some of the points that indicate the best year in Brother Fryer's faithful ministry.

Dr. Theodore Copeland—Cultured gentleman and brother from the Southland, we greet and love you. Buhl, Burley, Filer, Gooding, Montpelier, and Wendell thank you for your messages of love and for the inspiration that brought us closer to the feet of the Master. Your services were satisfactory in every respect, and we most heartily recommend you to any charge where the people and pastor will work together as faithfully and as loyally as you worked for Southern Idaho and Southern Idaho folks this year.

Gooding College—This is the tenth anniversary of Gooding College, and while I appreciate with you the good work done by President Tenney and the faithful corps of teachers, our very complacency makes me sense danger.

Last year eleven Baptist young folks from Buhl, five from Twin Falls, three each from Boise, Payette, and Filer, and many others went away to McMinnville, Oregon, far from home and at a great expense, to attend their college. When asked to attend an institution closer home, their answer was, "Our pastor insists that we attend our school."

Brethren, will we be as loyal to our College as the Catholic, the Mormon, and the Baptist is to his? We must work for it, pray for it, sacrifice for it, if we do the work God wants done, and hold the respect of our people, our young folks, and ourselves. Ask Brother Fletcher, who sends his young people to Gooding College and then gets them back as graduates, teachers in the Sunday School, the high school, and the grades, and even as preachers in his own pulpit, if it pays to be true to Gooding College and to Christian education.

With your fullest allegiance and hearty cooperation, this tenth anniversary will be a year of progress, of victory, of triumph. Without it, Gooding College will fail, you will fail, and I will fail to serve the youth of Methodism, the folks who need us most.

Philanthropic Finance—Last year we invited Dr. John W. Hancher with his corps of capable associates to cooperate with us in a forward movement for Gooding College at our request. Brothers Miller and Ross were assigned to the local field. Both men worked faithfully and loyally and as a result, over twenty thousand dollars in cash and adjustments were raised. Since that time, I have been privileged to be associated with this organization in an effort to care for the hospital work of the California Area and wish to express my appreciation for the great work Doctor Hancher has done for Methodism. In Miss Winifred Willard he has the best publicity agent I have known and we are proud of the fact that two of our own men are included in the list of expert workers. Were Methodism to lose the millions raised and the institutions saved by Dr. Hancher, that would indeed be a sorry depletion, so I feel that I owe it to him and to you to express my appreciation of him and his great work.

This report would not be complete without remembering Bishop Smith and the faithful and persistent way in which he has stood back of each and every district and charge for the past four years. As the quadrennium draws to a close, it is the sincere request of every man on the Eastern District that he will be returned to this Area but our best wishes and most earnest prayers will follow him to whatever field he may be assigned.

WESTERN DISTRICT

Bishop Richardson and Brethren:

I hereby present my third annual report to the Inter-Mountain Conference in deep gratitude and thankfulness to the Great Head of the church for His watchful care and sustaining grace. I have missed only four mid-week engagements during the year on account of illness. During the year I have been off the District but two Sundays. Our plan has been to hold three conferences and to give to each charge two Sunday preaching services, and with the exception of three or four of the larger churches we have been able to carry out our plan. To do this we have traveled twenty-seven thousand, five hundred and eighty-two miles by train, by auto, and by stage. In addition to this we have taught in six mid-year Epworth League Institutes and the Summer Institutes at Wood River and Wallowa Lake, and assisted in a week's special meetings.

A review of our year brings a striking evidence of the growing strain of the work of the ministry both on the minister and the minister's wife. I come to Conference with requests from one pastor backed by a physician's certificate that temporary relief be given from the work. Brother G. R. Ellis who had an attack of the flu last winter and which left him in such physical condition that he asks for a supernumerary relation. Brother J. E. Baker on account of the physical condition of Sister Baker requests a year's leave of absence.

In addition Mrs. A. B. Weaver was for weeks at Portland, Oregon, where she had a very serious operation; Mrs. G. R. Ellis was operated upon in Boise; Rev. J. J. Fleming was operated upon in Baker; Mrs. R. C. Lee and Mrs. H. I. Hansen were operated upon at the Hot Lake Sanitarium. Fortunately in each case recovery was complete or partial and they are all at work again.

Miss Mabel Aubin, the deaconess in charge of the work at Imbler, had a complete physical breakdown early in the spring and is now slowly regaining her health.

Brother A. W. Armstrong had the misfortune to be thrown from a horse and had his leg broken during the winter. Mrs. Armstrong carried on the work until his recovery. Brother J. E. Baker met with a serious auto accident in which he suffered the fracture of several ribs and other painful injuries.

Early in the Conference year Sister Henry Martin, the wife of our pastor at Homedale, passed away to her reward. She had been a patient sufferer for over a year. She knew the joys and sorrows of the itinerant preacher of frontier days and of living in frontier parsonages, doing the work of the Master. Sister Martin was an earnest pastor's wife, a fine Christian worker, a mother beloved by her children, a loyal friend and a consecrated Christian. A good woman has gone to await our coming to the heavenly home. Brother Martin has the sympathy of a host of friends.

Brother W. J. Barger, one of the retired ministers, died at the Idaho Soldier's Home during the year. He was a brother beloved by many.

Death has invaded no other parsonage home but several have been saddened by the death of parents, Rev. J. E. Baker by the death of his father, Mrs. H. K. Wallis by the death of her father and Mrs. J. J. Fleming by the death of her mother.

Achievements—La Grande has paid off their church debt. This was largely due to the efforts of the Ladies' Aid Society and the Pastor, H. W. Parker. Canyon City has paid off their church debt, and Prairie City has paid off their parsonage debt. John Day has at last realized the dream of years—a new church building. It was dedicated on August 7 and this work was largely due to the successful efforts of Brother S. E. Yaggy. At Nyssa a full basement was completed and a new furnace was installed. This will help take care of the growing Sunday School, in this growing town which will be the center of the Owyhee irrigation project. This is an achievement of the untiring efforts of Brother N. E. Hershey. A new church is being built at Melba, which will be dedicated soon after Conference. Nampa has re-decorated their church and parsonage and added a new Chickering grand piano to the equipment of the church. Many of the other charges have repaired and repainted and redecored the church and parsonage.

Finances—Owing to the low price of prunes last fall, the early freeze in September that partially ruined the apple crop, the shortage of water on the irrigated lands last year and the total failure on the dry farms together with the failure of nine banks within the bounds of the District, finances are not in very good shape. The deficiency will, however, be largely in ministerial support and local current expenses.

However, finances could be better if some of the churches would adopt and work a better financial plan, instead of putting off everything until the close of the year. Some will not change their methods even though it means a deficit every year. They are in a rut and all the efforts of the pastor and superintendent have not succeeded in getting them out. They like it and are content, and the church suffers.

The outlook for the future is hopeful with plenty of water this summer and good crops. With the prospect of good prices, the churches should get into better financial condition.

World Service—The churches have responded loyally to the World Service appeal. In spite of the dull financial outlook last fall and during the year until lately a fairly good increase will be reported from the District. The last report from the World Service office in Chicago showed the District giving in advance of last year. I believe the preachers have brought enough money to Conference to keep it there. But I note that from the various reports from the charges the Sunday Schools of the District are largely responsible for this increase. In several places if it were not for the Sunday School offerings for World Service very little would be given. However, where the pastor keeps his hand on the World Service there is an advance, but where it is taken, in a large measure, out of the hands of the pastor there is a decline in benevolent giving.

Gooding College has made some progress on the District both in interest and finance. It has received special attention at the District gatherings and through special communications to the pastors and churches. Gooding College is here to stay, let us sell it to our people. The reports should show an increase in its support.

District Gatherings—A District Conference and Laymen's Council was held in Boise in January. There was a large and enthusiastic gathering of preachers and laymen from the District. The messages of Bishop H. Lester Smith, and of Dr. Bert E. Smith and those associated with him in the Methodist Men's Movement were inspiring and helpful. The men of the District were organized and this has resulted in the organization of a number of Men's Councils.

Two group meetings were held in the interest of Good Literature. One at La Grande and the other at Boise. Dr. Edward Laird Mills was present and spoke in behalf of the religious press. This has resulted in an increase of Advocate subscribers; yet we are far from the goal of a church paper in the home of every church official. On some charges the pastor is the only one who takes a church paper. In these places it is hard to maintain church loyalty and these people fall victims to every "wind of doctrine that blows." One of the weaknesses of Protestant Christianity is that it has not been and is not being sold to Protestant Christians. No, not even the Methodist Church has sold Methodism to its membership. Many do not know its history, organization, beliefs, program or spirit. This has resulted in very little church loyalty.

Six mid-year Epworth League Institutes were held during the winter months and a splendid Summer Institute was held at Wallowa Lake. Here Dean Wallis and a fine faculty brought inspiration to a fine group of young people. Our Epworth League has been making mighty efforts toward the best things of the kingdom and its service, but the voice of the world, self, and pleasure are loud and insistent, so that the task is a difficult one. Unless we can provide some new and fresh entertainment every month to hold the inquiring Athenian natures of the young people, we seem in some places to lose out. Notwithstanding all this the Leagues of the District are alive and going strong in many places. If we were to cultivate the Junior League many of the difficulties of the Senior League would cease.

Junior Leagues are suffering for the lack of consecrated leaders, yet there is no work that will so fully repay for the effort expended. There are several splendid Junior Churches on the District. May their tribe increase.

Daily Vacation Bible Schools were held at Caldwell, Payette, Eagle, Middleton and Nampa, with fine interest and results. Many more places could follow their example.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have done very remarkable work on the District. No words of mine can do justice to their excellent work. Some of the appointments would have no existence but for this organization and others could not be self-supporting but for their help. I note with interest the increased activities along the line of social service. I also note with pleasure that they are setting a high standard of social life and custom in many communities. This will in time have its influence on other societies outside the church. All honor to them and their faithful work.

There have not been as many revivals on the District as we would like to see. A few were held with fairly good results. I am convinced that the greatest need of the church is a real revival campaign. Such a revival campaign followed up by earnest work will solve most of our problems. There is great need for the bringing back of divine life into the church and her people. We need the divine life-giving and life-renewing influence so that the people may not only get right with God but will also get right with their fellow men, by becoming conscious of the divine personality and power in us.

Problems of Administration—There has been and still is an exodus of people from some sections of the District. In one county in eastern Oregon forty per cent of the population have moved out during the past ten years, mostly during the past five. With the steady decline of missionary money it has become quite a problem to man some of these fields. We are still a vast missionary field and will continue to be for years to come. In spite of what might be said about the passing of the frontier to the east, we still have the frontier in large sections of this District, small valleys where there are ten to fifteen families unchurched and uncared for. It is our task to look after them if we believe the Master's command to "Go." It will be five years or more before the farmers will derive much benefit from the Owyhee River project and drainage system; but shall we neglect the settlers on the land who are struggling, and have been for years, to make ends meet with so little water, but with the hope that someday they will have plenty of water and good crops?

The work of administration becomes more complex with the variety of demands of the churches; one wants a Holy Ghost preacher, another just a preacher, another a pastor, another a boy scout man, another a good mixer; while another wants a young man so that he may make merry with his kind. Another wants a young man who can preach, organize boy scouts, be a good mixer and who has a personality that will appeal to men. He must have a wife who is not afraid of work, and for this paragon they will pay the magnificent sum of $1000 out of which he will have to pay his own house rent. Now, if churches could be standardized as auto plants and preachers as Ford parts the demand might be met; but as they are not we are doing our best, knowing the strength and weakness of human nature.

The work of the ministry today is not easy. What with the indifference of the people to religious things, and the desecration of the Lord's Day by an increasing number of church members; what with the Epicurean tastes of our age, when people want to be entertained in church as well as elsewhere and are seeking preachers who can entertain and please rather than "correct, rebuke and exhort with all long suffering and patience"; what with the lack of God-consciousness which allows God to be an impersonal someone to us, destroying all testimony and communion; what with little sense of duty toward God and scarcely any higher ideal than merely to get into heaven by "the skin of the teeth"; what with the restless, godless spirit of the times; all put upon the ministry a new task and a new burden which seems but for divine grace to be overwhelming. Therefore, let us feed our people with the word of God, and wait in the upper room until the divine power sweeps through every human endeavor, and the church and the people shall come back to the heart of a personal God and learn to do all things not "by might, nor by power but by my spirit saith the Lord of hosts," then and then only shall the keystone of the kingdom be put into place with rejoicing and our eyes behold the glory of it. May God grant the Western District to fill its place completely in bringing in the kingdom of our Christ for which we long have prayed.

In closing, I wish to express my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the pastors and their families and to the laymen of the various charges for their kindly reception and for their Christian cooperation in all the work of the year. The fellowship and association and our labor of love together is one of the many compensations of a District Superintendent.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRY S. HAMILTON,
Superintendent.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES AND CONFERENCE BOARDS

AUDITING COMMITTEE

The books of the Conference treasurer, the treasurer of the Conference trustees, the treasurer of the Conference Claimants Endowment Commission, and the books of the District Superintendents were examined and O. K.'d.

SAMUEL ALLISON,
C. A. QUINN,
C. E. TATE.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

We view with alarm the tendency to violate the sanctity of the Sabbath Day, commonly called Sunday, by the moving-picture show, ball games, and many other diversions not conducive to vital piety. Therefore, be it resolved: That we use our influence to keep this a holy day as was intended.

CHARLES A. QUINN,
J. EARL OFFICER.

BIBLE

In the field of literature there are many books with definite interpretation of religious purpose and power.

Inasmuch as no book can take the place of the Bible as the One Great Book of the home with which to teach the practical, every day principles of life, we recommend that all our people: Read the Bible regularly and systematically, and make it the book of religious instruction in the home and in every day life.

CHARLES D. FLETCHER,
N. E. HERSHEY,
GEO. R. ARCHER.

PERIODICALS

We, with great pleasure and appreciation, again call the attention of our church membership of the Inter-Mountain Conference to the invaluable service rendered the Church and country at large through the editorship of the Pacific Christian Advocate by the Rev. Dr. Mills.

We urge that an effort be put forth upon every charge in order that the proportion of subscriptions to the Pacific Christian Advocate may be raised to one subscription for every ten members of the Church.

We pledge our hearty support to the Methodist Book Concern in its endeavor to furnish the Church and the world with the very best of literature, and we rejoice with it in its many and great achievements.

We again recommend a Good Literature Secretary for each charge according to the Discipline, Paragraph 107, Section 8.

H. S. HAMILTON,
G. H. FEESE.

TEMPERANCE

Whereas, Our American people are now in the throes of a moral revolution in which the liquor traffic is in the course of ultimate extinction through National Constitutional Prohibition; and,

Whereas, The Methodists have a full share of responsibility for bringing on this reform and have set our faces toward a saloonless nation and a country supported by clean money and with no tainted liquor revenue in its treasury; therefore,

Be It Resolved: That our Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, representing the people called Methodists in this part of the United States is of the opinion that there is no change in the purpose of our people to see Prohibition through to a general observance and better enforcement. We ask that our papers inform our people of the progress toward world prohibition; we urge our pastors to preach frequently on total abstinence and law observance, and all our people to stand and vote legally for constitutional prohibition and pray that the reform may go around the world.

We rejoice in the success of our own Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals, in its leadership in sentiment-making, its success at the nation's capital, its wonderful achievement in the erection of the Methodist building with the site and structure paid for by voluntary contributions and its income used as an endowment for the cause for all time, and finally, for its effective ministry of reform in many nations of every part of the world.

E. L. WHITE,
C. E. HELMAN.

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

Evangelism has ever been a distinctive characteristic of Methodism. It cannot live without it.

We do not understand evangelism to mean a periodical or spasmodic revival effort, but rather a deep yearning for soul-saving service in the hearts and lives of the ministry and members of our church. It is our mission to carry the gospel to the unsaved people wherever they may be, whether in the "streets and alleys" or on the "highways," that the Master's table may be filled. The effective evangelism of today is more of a personal appeal than the appeal of the pulpit, and in this field every member may function.

We urge a greater effort in this service of personal evangelism on the part of both ministry and members, that our church may fulfill its mission and prove its right to exist.

We must go out and compel them to come in.

A. B. WEAVER,
W. A. WINTERS.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

We, the Committee on Education, present the following:

Be it Resolved: First, that this Conference appoint a committee to consider the possibility of securing and supporting a Director of Religious Education, and to take such steps as they find necessary toward securing such Director for either full or part time.

Second: We commend the work of the Wesley Foundation in our tax supported institutions, and pledge anew our hearty cooperation and support.

Third: We rejoice in the splendid progress of Kimball School of Theology and commend it to our young people who are looking forward to preparation for definite Christian work. We nominate E. C. S. Brainard to succeed himself as trustee, his term to expire in 1930. We nominate C. O. Heath as Official Visitor from this Conference.

Fourth: We commend the work of Gooding College under the masterful leadership of President C. W. Tenney, LL. D., and pledge to this our growing institution our loyal support both financially and in securing students from our charges. We announce the election of Brothers J. E. Baker and E. S. Lewis by the Board of Trustees, their terms to expire 1930; also the election, by the Board of Trustees, of Horace Turner to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Ira R. Aldrich. We nominate as members of the Board of Trustees, subject to the vote of the Conference: Resident Bishop Ex-Officio; H. S. Hamilton; W. W. Van Dusen; John W. Hardin; Mrs. C. E. B. Roberts.

Respectfully submitted,

H. C. KOHR,
VALENTINE DEICH,
H. G. McCALLISTER.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

We desire to record our confidence in the Sunday School program, believing it to be the unlimited means of bringing the children under the influence of the power of the gospel of Jesus Christ. We urge the pastors to greater activity in promoting the interests of the church in this department.

We desire to express our appreciation of the high standard attained in our Sunday School literature, and urge its exclusive use in our Sunday Schools. We believe it furnishes a complete equipment for the work of religious instruction of the youth of all classes.

We recommend that the pastors and churches endeavor to make the Daily Vacation Bible School a part of their annual program.

J. J. FLEMING,
C. O. HEATH,
H. I. HANSEN.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Never in the history of the missionary work of Christendom has this sort of altruistic endeavor been more successful, and at the same time more of a problem, and less understood by the masses both within and without the church.

To the casual observer, India writhes in the throes of spiritual insurrection, mental revulsion and physical rebellion; but the Christ of God travels steadily along the "Indian Road." He knows and the people are coming to understand.

Our dark complexioned brothers of Africa, Japan, Malaysia and Korea progress normally and steadily. The miracle always surprising yet ever expected, is China which, like Minerva, leaped into the arena of life literally chanting a war-song. The Christ of the China Road will be the cynosure of interested observers for years to come. The Church of our Christ never was so proud of actual achievements as today in the case of "our brother in yellow." The sleeping giant of the ages has awakened, a complete Hercules. The brain of the nation is bared to the erstwhile skeptical world which now "sits up and takes notice." Christ in the human heart is "the same, yesterday, today, and forever" everywhere, and in every variant of human color. The peoples with Him in their lives are to be trusted and honored. Buddha, as a force in China, died ages ago; Confucius is falling asleep, but the risen Christ is gradually emerging from the mists of denominational speculations and narrow jealousies in all missionary lands and becoming the acknowledged "Lord of all."

The Church of God should be rapturously proud of her spiritual offspring in all Asia, and elsewhere, since her trained progeny are taking powerfully the places for which they were so thoroughly and well prepared. Should these spiritual children fail, it will be the fault of their spiritual parents. But Christ is leading and we can logically join in Shurtleff's hymn of

"Lead on, O King eternal,
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er thy face appears."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

We confine our report to our own territory. We are optimists but we are not blind to facts, and the facts are not encouraging. In 1922 the reported full membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Conference was 10,572; in 1926 it was 10,247, a loss in four years of 325. In 1923 our ministers in the effective relation numbered 55; in 1926 we reported 51. On the former date there were six probationers in the conference; the latter date shows but one. These facts are appalling.

During the past four years our church property has increased $90,010.00. During the same period ministerial support has increased $5,705.00. We are increasing in material things; we are losing in spiritual power. This ratio will not continue forever. We must take on more spiritual power.

We have many Methodists who never attend prayer meeting, and seldom are seen in church. We have many members who are frequenters of public dancing parties and card parties, and who attend picture shows on the Lord's Day. Many open their homes to dancing parties and card tables. They do not seem to realize the blighting effects that follow such conduct, nor do they seem to care. Self-centered living is the characteristic of too many of our people. They have no idea of literally following the teachings of Jesus in their home, or business, or social life. They pay more in time, and talents, and in money to the pleasures of this life than they pay for the extension or maintenance of the Kingdom. Their conduct, in its effect, is more than depressing; it is deadening. They, with much of the world of humanity, have gone wild in the lust for amusement. It is their god, their idol. They come to their better senses only when they are very near the conclusion of life. They still want something somewhat religious at their funerals.

Where is the cure for this critical situation? How shall we call a halt in our backward trend? On our knees before God is our correct attitude. Here, in submission to His will, under His all-seeing eye, with humble hearts, with genuine love for a lost world, in sorrow for our own shortcomings, let us inquire the way to better things. Let us think on the good people who still regard God's holy day. Let us take courage in the fact that there are many in our churches who have not bowed the knee to Baal. There are thousands who have regard for Jesus and His life for others. The golden rule is the guiding law for many. Thank God for these who order their daily living by what is pleasing to our Master.

Still on our knees, let us look into our own hearts. Do we find that, as shepherds of the flock of God, we have been negligent of duty? Are we lazy squanderers of precious time? Have we done our best as ministers of Jesus Christ? Have we loved our people as we should? Have we really tried to show the wayward a better way? Have we done as Jesus would do if He were in our place? Let us answer these and a hundred other questions honestly with our eyes on the judgment throne. Let us live at our very best and expect our people to do the same. Let us not give up to discouragement. God still lives. His revelation is for us. Let us preach it in earnestness and love.

In solving the great problems which are upon us we need not expect much aid from the General Conference. Indeed we would be just as well off if we could omit it for the next quadrennium. The minister is the key man in saving the situation. He must work out the salvation of his people by the aid of God and the godly people of the fold. He must pray, and preach, and live as he never has in the past. It is for him to lead on to victory. He must be the inspirer of his people, and win them to the higher life.

There are cults and isms of every sort preying upon us. They thrive oftentimes on our failures to live the highest sort of life. It is for us to show them something better. If we oppose them we must be sure of our ground and be sure that we can drive the truth home with staggering blows. Unless we can do this we had better keep still. Their tendency is to die if left alone. Some churches have come into being and maintain themselves because we have not lived the life we should have lived. History is repeating itself. Remember how the Wesleyan movement came into being. Let us prove our right to live.

What shall we say about our young people? We have them, and we have great problems in connection with them. How shall they be saved from the evils of the world? We hear the echo, How? We have unlimited machinery for this work—the Sunday School, the Epworth League, Senior, Intermediate, and Junior. Apparently they all break down more or less. The trouble is we have another piece of machinery which has very largely broken down, namely the so-called Christian home. Father does not think enough of his children to pray with them; mother thinks more of bridge and the social life than of son or daughter. Thank God this is not always the case. There are some Christian homes where Christ is held before the young people by life and example. But this is not always the case. The youth problem is the problem of the parents. The church cannot solve it. It can, and does help. The father and mother must solve it, for it is their problem. It is their task and should be their joy. With the right sort of home life, with prayer and song, with the church literature and other suitable reading matter for the youth, with right business and social ideals, with a faithful example of father and mother regarding the Lord's Day, His house and institutions, with the father in Sunday School, with mother there if possible, with helpful comments on the sermon and services, in short with right living and example, the youth problem is largely solved. Then, the machinery of the church will successfully supplement the home influence.

Our situation as a church is far from satisfactory. We are not standing well with the general public. We question whether we are holding our own as related to some other churches. We are not the evangelizing power we once were. We have run too much into formality and fail to make it succeed. We are fearfully lacking in genuine loyalty to our Christ and His institutions. Our people, many of them at least, place their lodge in advance of the institutions of our Lord. They must be at the meetings of the former; the church may take care of itself. Lindbergh must be honored and dined, while Jesus Christ takes a back seat. The things of this world must be exalted, while the facts which make for eternal life are trampled under the feet of men. Christ of the Indian Road and of China's great rivers and plains, Christ of the world's great needs, may hold out His bleeding hands for World Service support, but most of the treasures are pre-empted for automobiles, and joy rides, and the world's pleasures. The calls of the world's Redeemer go largely unheeded. The Methodist people of the Inter-Mountain Conference as a rule have as yet utterly failed to grasp the idea of Christian stewardship.

We must have more prayer, more consecration, more of the Christ vision of a lost world, and the ministry must lead out in this life, and lift people nearer and nearer to Jesus and Calvary. The minister is the key man. He must be ready to die for the cause. He must combine the zeal and consecration of a Loyola and a Wesley. He must not fail.

Whereas, Certain forces which threaten the spiritual life of the Church and especially challenge the ascendancy and leadership of Jesus as the Son of God and Savior of the world, operate within the boundary of this Conference and certain adjacent territory,

We recommend that a day be set apart in each district during the coming year, preferably at the time of the District Conferences, for prayer and investigation as to how this situation can be met.

We suggest that the period of investigation be divided, one part to be occupied in considering the necessary doctrinal emphases, and another period be used for the purpose of working out practical methods.

We further ask that the resident Bishop of this Area make provision for such a meeting in his program of visitation.

W. W. VAN DUSEN,
J. D. GILLILAN.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, The 44th session of the Inter-Mountain Conference has been held in the beautiful and progressive city of Burley, Idaho, and we, the members, desire to express our genuine appreciation of the most generous and gracious hospitality shown by the citizens of this place; therefore,

Be It Resolved: That we hereby declare our gratitude to the pastor, Rev. O. L. Kendall, and to his people who have spared no effort and have overlooked no item for our pleasure and convenience.

That we appreciate the courtesies of the management of the splendid hotels at Burley, the welcome and courtesy of Mayor Harpster extended to the members of the Conference, the generous publicity given our Conference program by the Burley Herald, the Burley Bulletin and the Associated Press, the cooperation of the Rotary and Commercial Clubs, the City Council, the Banks and other organizations of the city, in making our stay in Burley pleasant, and our Conference a success.

That we appreciate the more than generous and efficient hospitality and entertainment of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Burley Methodist Church, and the help given by other churches in the community in the use of their buildings and in the entertainment of delegates.

That we express our regrets because of the absence of our resident Bishop, H. Lester Smith, but at the same time register our thankfulness and commendation for the inspiring spiritual leadership and efficient management of Bishop Ernest G. Richardson during this Conference session.

That we have been inspired by the addresses and our interests quickened in the interests represented by: Drs. Geo. F. Hopkins, Assistant of the Board of Pensions and Relief; Henry H. Meyers, Editor of Sunday School Publications; O. W. Auman, Treasurer of the World Service Commission; E. D. Kohlstedt, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extensions; N. E. Davis, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Hospitals, Homes and Deaconess Work; Bert E. Smith, Field Cultivation of Men's work, Methodist Board of Education; John R. Edwards, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions; Clarence True Wilson, General Secretary of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals; and other representatives who appeared on our programs.

That we have enjoyed the visits of Dr. Edward Laird Mills, Editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate; Dr. O. Grant Markham, Publishing Agent of the Methodist Book Concern; J. J. Brauer and Geo. E. Stewart representing the Portland Branch of the Methodist Book Concern; and assure them of our appreciation of the intellectual stimulus they have provided through the causes they represent.

That we express our appreciation to Misses Celia Cowan and Abbie Probasco for their presentation of mission work in China, and again register our loyalty and devotion to the whole missionary enterprise.

That we thank the Ladies' Aid Society of the Rupert Methodist Church for their entertainment provided for members of the Conference on their sight-seeing tour, for the delightful trip they gave the members of Conference and the laymen to Minidoka and other points of interest about this great irrigation system.

That we appreciate the musical selections rendered by the local church members, the Hansen quartette and other musicians.

That we shall have happy and kindly memories of the comradeship and fellowship of our brethren in the ministry and the lay delegates, and of the friendships formed among the people of Burley, Idaho.

That we shall carry with us through the coming year the inspiration and spiritual uplift of this Conference and do better and more efficient work for the Master until we meet next year in Boise for still better reports and a still greater session of the Inter-Mountain Conference.

OBITUARY

MRS. HENRY MARTIN

Mary Jane Ebert was born near Carlton, Ill., March 16, 1863. She became a Christian when but a girl. She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and continued faithful to her youthful profession until her death, which occurred Nov. 30, 1926 in Homedale, Idaho. She was married to Rev. Henry Martin, Sept. 28, 1884, and with him came west in 1895. Their first home was in Washington. She walked and served by her husband's side for forty-two years, always solicitous for the welfare of the Kingdom of her Lord and His Church. She never complained of the many frontier hardships she had to endure as the wife of a trail-breaking pioneer Methodist preacher and home missionary of the truest type.

She died in the triumphs of the living faith in her personal Savior. Thus passed on a quiet but most earnest follower of her Savior. So much was she respected in her town that the business houses closed during the hour of her funeral services.

WILLIAM J. BARGER

The Rev. W. J. Barger, an honored member of the Inter-Mountain Conference, was born in 1842 in Jefferson County, Iowa, probably in the town of Sidney. He enlisted in the Union Army in 1862 and soon was promoted to the office of Corporal in Co. F. of the 15th regiment of Iowa Infantry. He served for three years, and after being mustered out he again enlisted and became a sergeant early in 1864. He was again mustered out July 22, 1865, after a creditable career as a soldier.

Soon after the war he removed to Nebraska. In 1869 he married Miss Elizabeth Pell. In 1875 he united with the Nebraska Conference and began his itinerant ministry. In 1893 he came to Idaho after having spent at least two years within the bounds of the Puget Sound Conference. His good wife departed from this life in 1895. Four daughters were born to this union, two of whom are still living, Mrs. E. A. Walters of Twin Falls, and Mrs. Wm. O. Hall of Boise.

W. J. Barger was an earnest and faithful Christian minister who took his work seriously, and did it effectively. He was a delightful man to meet and hold converse with. He had a peculiar and charming humor which easily showed itself in his conversation. He was refined in speech and was a writer of marked ability. He wrote a great deal and his poems sometimes were found in print and evidenced much talent.

When he became an old man he entered the Idaho State Soldiers' Home near Boise, May 13, 1922. Here he remained until his death which occurred October 10, 1926. The writer had charge of the funeral, and his mortal body, his earthly tabernacle for about 84 years, reposes in Silent Camp, Morris Hill, near Boise, Idaho.

I append one of Brother Barger's poems, which breathes his faith and peace.

*"Gently in the harbor mild,
Anchor drops and sails are furled,
Voyage done, the homesick child
Sweetly rests in yon bright world.
Weary voyager in the harbor,
Where the toils of life are o'er,
Enters through the shining portals,
Singing praise forevermore.*

*Round your barque the tempests raged,
Sorrows poured like torrents down,
Many cares your heart engaged,
But they've ended with a crown.
But how sad and lone the hearthstone,
Since you've gone away to rest,
But 'tis well! you've left your burdens—
He who called you knoweth best."*

OUR ADVERTISERS

Without the help that our advertisers have given, this Book would be impossible except at great extra cost to the Conference.

The Secretaries would appreciate it if when in need of anything in their line, you would patronize them.

RESOLUTION CONFERENCE MINUTE FUND

Whereas, the high cost of paper and labor makes the publication of our minutes more and more of a burden, and that we may have a more adequate and equitable plan for obtaining our minute fund, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the future it shall be the policy of this Conference to exact a tax from each effective member of the Conference equivalent to one-fourth of one per cent of his cash salary including missionary money but not house rent.

MEMORIAL TO GENERAL CONFERENCE, NO. 1 ON BOOK DEPOSITORY AT PORTLAND, OREGON

In the fall of 1914, a Salesroom of The Methodist Book Concern was established at Portland, Oregon.

This was done to give better service to our pastors, churches, and Sunday Schools in the Northwest. At this time a great deal of the business of our Methodist constituency was going to local firms at Portland, Seattle, and Spokane, and Sunday School supply orders to D. C. Cook and others. During all these years the accounts have been under the jurisdiction of our San Francisco Depository.

That our Methodist people are loyal to our House and appreciate good service is readily seen in our yearly increasing sales figures which show that in the eleven years, 1915 to 1926 inclusive, the sales have increased from $25,935.00 to $145,959.00 at Portland. Only a minor part of this business was handled by our San Francisco and Chicago Houses before the Salesroom was established at Portland.

The time has come, however, when our people in the Northwest feel that they are entitled to the same service as all other Methodists loyal to the Methodist Book Concern, or doing business with any other up-to-date firm, namely, to have their accounts handled at Portland where their purchases are made, instead of at San Francisco, nearly 800 miles away.

We have lost a great many accounts because of the necessity of handling the accounts through Portland and San Francisco. Some of our former patrons have promised to come back to us when our Portland Salesroom is made a Depository.

The expense of making this change would be small, as the handling of approximately 2500 accounts could be done by an additional helper who could then be transferred from San Francisco to Portland.

The development and growth in the Northwest assures us that if our people obtain the same service from the Portland Book Concern as the Methodist constituency in other areas do, our business will, without a doubt, increase at a greater rate of percentage than in any other of our Houses.

We, therefore, the members of Inter-Mountain Conference, memorialize the General Conference, meeting in May, 1928, to make the Portland Salesroom of the Methodist Book Concern a Depository.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE, NO. 2

ON THE RESTORATION OF THE NAME "IDAHO"

Whereas, There exists within the bounds of the Montana Conference an institution known as the Intermountain College, thus creating a certain amount of confusion in the use of the same name for this Conference, and

Whereas, The change of name from Idaho to "Inter-Mountain" was never legally consummated according to the laws of the State of Idaho, and

Whereas, By vote of this, the Inter-Mountain Conference, in annual session at Union, Oregon, one year ago, voted to retain the name Idaho,

Therefore, We do hereby memorialize the Committee on Boundaries of the next General Conference to restore to this Conference its former name: "Idaho Conference."

MEMORIAL NO. 3

ON RESERVE PENSION FUND

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to be held at Kansas City, Mo., May, 1928.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

Whereas, There has been presented to the Inter-Mountain Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church the "Complete Text of the Plan of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund" of the Methodist Episcopal Church as approved by the Board of Pensions and Relief; therefore,

Be It Resolved: (1) That we hereby approve the principals of providing adequate reserve funds to protect and stabilize the payment of pension and other benefits to the retired and disabled ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church and to the widows and orphans of Methodist preachers;

(2) That we commend to the next General Conference the adjustment of the pension program of the church in such manner as to make the progressive funding of pensions for "New Entrants" a certainty, and at the same time make provision for the guaranty of all pensions based on services rendered by "Previous Entrants";

(3) That we urge the General Conference to direct that steps be taken to promote a general effort throughout the church to secure the requisite reserves so as to make possible at an early day the reserve funding of all accrued pensions;

(4) That we approve the general principles embodied in the "Complete Text of the Plan of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund," prepared and approved by the Board of Pensions and Relief, as furnishing a progressive program that will gradually stabilize the pension system of Methodism on a reserve basis, without disturbing, meanwhile, pension operations under the "Original Pension System" of 1908; and respectfully memorialize the General Conference to adopt the Plan of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund and incorporate it into the legislation of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

MEMORIAL NO. 4

ON CHANGE OF BOUNDARY

The Inter-Mountain Conference went on record as approving the following Resolution:

RESOLUTION

Whereas, The territory embraced in the Inter-Mountain Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is contiguous to, and by geographical, transportation and business considerations naturally dependent on and a contributing factor to the greater territory embraced in the Portland Area; and,

Whereas, The larger part of the Inter-Mountain Conference, in point of population, both church and general, is now maintaining very close business and social relations with Portland, Oregon; and,

Whereas, In the opinion of the Quarterly Conference of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Boise, Idaho, it would be greatly to the benefit of the work of the church in the Inter-Mountain Conference to be attached to the Portland Area rather than the Helena Area, as at present; therefore,

Be It Resolved: By the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Boise, Idaho, that we do hereby present this matter to the Annual Conference of the Inter-Mountain Conference for consideration, and respectfully request that such action be taken by said body as will bring about the transfer of the Inter-Mountain Conference from the Helena Area to the Portland Area.

We do hereby certify that the foregoing Resolution was duly presented to the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Boise, Idaho, on August 29, 1927, and that, after full discussion, was unanimously passed.

HARRY S. HAMILTON,
District Superintendent.
C. F. ELFORD,
Secretary.

TELEGRAM TO BISHOP SMITH, APPROVED BY THE CONFERENCE

Bishop H. Lester Smith, Helena Montana:

Inter-Mountain Conference wires greetings and appreciation of loyal and persistent cooperation for past three years. Substantial increase in World Service, and all other major claims. Optimism and confidence prevail. We regret your absence and request your return. Bishop Richardson beloved by all.
B. F. MEREDITH, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE

Burley, Idaho, September 2.

The Lay Electoral Conference of the Inter-Mountain Annual Conference met in the Presbyterian Church at 9:00 a. m. Mr. E. C. S. Brainard of Payette, Idaho, was elected chairman, and Mr. Geo. W. Lyle, of Burley, Idaho, secretary.

The Conference cast the following number of votes for the successful candidates for delegates to the General Conference to be held at Kansas City, Mo., in May, 1928:

42 votes cast for delegate. Hans J. Roan, Boise, Idaho, received 35 votes; John W. Peter, Pocatello, Idaho, received 34 votes.

41 acceptable votes cast for alternate delegate. Mr. W. O. Cotton, Idaho Falls, Idaho, received 35 votes as first alternate; and Mrs. W. A. Winters, Cascade, Idaho, received 25 votes as second alternate.

One memorial was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Conference, requesting the General Conference meeting in May, 1928 to make the Portland Salesroom of the Methodist Book Concern a Depository for such Concern.

Four resolutions were passed. One, approving the proposed constitutional amendment to the Constitution admitting laymen to the Annual Conference, passed by a vote of 35 to 2; the second, endorsing the organization and aims of the Methodist Brotherhood and urging its active support, received a unanimous vote; the third, approving the proposed new plan for the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund, was approved by a vote of 24 to 0; and the fourth, expressing the thanks of the Conference to the Methodist Church of Burley for their hospitality, to the Presbyterian Church of Burley for the use of their building, and to the people of Burley for the entertainment afforded the delegates, was likewise passed by a unanimous vote of those voting.

A proposed resolution requesting the transfer of the Inter-Mountain Conference from the Helena Area to the Portland Area was referred to the Conference delegates to General Conference without recommendation.

The Conference thereupon adjourned subject to call by the chairman.

GEO. W. LYLE,
Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE LAYMEN'S CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

To the Pastor, Rev. O. L. Kendall, to the Mayor of Burley, to the Chamber of Commerce, and to all citizens who opened their homes to the lay delegates; to the Ladies' Aid Society for their generosity and hospitality, to the Presbyterian Church for the use of their building, and to all concerned for the recreational trip and the delightful reception at the Rupert Church, we take this method of expressing our hearty appreciation. We think it fitting to append, as expressive of our feelings, the Scripture illuminated to us by our Bishop, E. G. Richardson, "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you."—(Phil. 1:3.)

TODAY there is a new appreciation for the value of this pure juice of choicest Concord, fresh from the vine. For in each glass are found the health-giving qualities of the fresh fruit. Use Welch's daily for your health.

Thru strict adherence to highest standards—Welch Quality is maintained and makes this the ideal “fruit of the vine” for the Sacrament.
